

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 1.

SPOUTSPRING, KY., JUNE 13, 1896.

NO. 21.

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS.

J. E. BURGER, JR., Editor.

30 cents per annum.

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

Saturday, June 13, 1896.

Entered at the post-office at Spout Spring, Ky., as second-class mail matter.

LOCALS.

Children knee suits 50c at Patrick's.

James Elkin, of Ruckerville, was here Saturday.

Whole stock plow shoes $1. at Burger's.

B. L. Burger went to Winchester on business last Saturday.

Born Friday, June 12, to W. E. Heflin and wife, a tenth boy.

Miss Edith Christopher left yesterday to visit relatives and friends at Winchester.

Mrs. George Ginter and Mrs. T. B. Demoree, College Hill, were guests of friends and relatives in this vicinity the earlier part of the week.

A fishing party of Scholls ville and Kidville, are located at Lily's Ferry. They report a jolly time and plenty of fish.

15 lbs of dry salt meat for $1. at Patrick's.

Eat wholesome bread made of Mansfield's best flour.

For stoves, hardware and queensware, go to W. R. Cassidy's.

Quite a number of citizens of Hardwick's creek, Clay City and Irvine attended the Quarterly Meeting at this place Sunday.

Misses Ella Henry, Eda and Ida Warmeth of Irvine, were guests of Misses Edith and Dolly Christopher. Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. L. S. Denton has been arrested for officiating matrimony without the proper authority and held at $500 bail which he failed to give and was remanded to jail.

Last Tuesday evening the report reached here that a beast had been killed near the mouth of Black creek, which none of the neighbors could name. It was said to weigh about 150 lbs and to have some resemblance of a lion. Wednesday a crowd from this place went to see the quadruped, and they all agreed to call it a large dog.

C. F. Masters, of Irvine, was in town yesterday.

J. W. Edwards, of College Hill, was in town yesterday.

C. C. Todd, of Ruckerville, came up yesterday to visit relatives in this community.

J. J. Curry, wholesale groceryman of Winchester, was taking orders from the merchants of this place Tuesday.

Dr. Elkins reports the following: Born to J. E. Burger, Jr. and wife on Thursday, June 11th a boy; weight, 9 pounds.

The applicants for schools have begun their yearly ride.

We hope the school trustees of this county will be a little more cautious about who they employ for teachers. Remember a good teacher never has to go very far from home to get a position. You had better employ your neighbor, one you know, and nine times out of ten you have a better teacher than any stranger you can employ.

JOB PRINTING

At this office at the
LOWEST PRICE.